

STEVE BUNNELL
PARTNER
O'MELVENY & MYERS LLP

Stevan E. Bunnell is a partner in O'Melveny's Washington, DC office and a member of the White Collar Defense and Corporate Investigations Practice. His practice focuses on representing corporate and individual clients in civil and criminal matters.

Steve is a highly regarded former prosecutor with over two decades of experience in handling cases involving criminal antitrust, health care fraud, congressional and executive branch corruption, government procurement fraud, corporate and securities fraud, export control violations, violations of the Bank Secrecy Act, and money laundering. He has been recognized as a leading white collar defense lawyer by International Who's Who of Business Crime Defence Lawyers (2010-2011); Chambers USA (2010); Corporate Counsel (2010); Expert Guides' handbook of the "World's Leading White Crime Lawyers" (2010); Best Lawyers in America (2009-2010); and Washington, DC Super Lawyers (2010).

Prior to joining O'Melveny, Steve served as the Chief of the Criminal Division of the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of Columbia, where he oversaw the investigation and prosecution of hundreds of federal white collar crime and public corruption cases. He also served as Chief of the U.S. Attorney's Office's Fraud and Public Corruption Section, Counsel to the Assistant Attorney General for the Criminal Division, a Trial Attorney in the Department of Justice's Public Integrity Section, and as an Assistant U.S. Attorney.

At the U.S. Attorney's Office and the Justice Department, Steve handled numerous sensitive and complex public corruption investigations, including criminal allegations against high ranking Executive Branch officials, Members of Congress, Assistant U.S. Attorneys, FBI, DEA and other federal law enforcement agents. He supervised many high-profile matters, including: the prosecution of Mitchell Wade, a defense contractor, for bribery of former Congressman Randall "Duke" Cunningham; investigation of potential criminal violations arising out of accounting practices at Fannie Mae; prosecution of contracting fraud and bribery allegations involving executives of Douglas Development Company and high-ranking officials of the DC Government; prosecution of entrepreneur Walter Anderson for evading more than $250 million in federal taxes; investigations of current and former Members of Congress for potential fraud, bribery, and campaign financing violations; and multiple investigations of multi-million dollar federal procurement fraud involving parallel False Claims Act/Qui Tam proceedings

Steve has clerked for the Honorable Laurence H. Silberman, U.S. Court of Appeals, District of Columbia Circuit. He is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia.
